The Meeting

We met upon a summer evening warm,
When corn stood stooked upon the downland fields,
And sun to moonlight in the west then yields,
And distant lightning heralds summer storm.
The rain falls softly on the earth new born,
A night upon bright new friendship's sealed,
All fears, all shadows from the future peeled,
You danced my heart away till dewy dawn.

Then three long years we were divided by
Great seas and continents around the world,
Yet letters flew across the troubled sky
And told the story of two different lives,
Until the great day finally arrives
Our coats of arms are both together furled.

Trevenen James

Reflection Music

The Swan by Camille Saint Saëns (played by Yo-Yo Ma)

The Committal

And I shall have some peace there, for peace comes dropping slow,
Dropping from the veils of the morning to where the cricket sings;
There midnight's all a glimmer, and noon a purple glow,
And evening full of the linner's wings.

I will arise and go now, for always night and day
I hear lake water lapping with low sounds by the shore;
While I stand on the roadway, or on the pavements grey,
I hear it in the deep heart's core.

From The Lake Isle of Innisfree – W.B. Yeats
